

I am against revision of the public ownership rules allowing fewer companies to own greater portions of the airwaves. Please protect our rights to have diversity in our radio and tv networks. The airwaves belong to us and not to big conglomerates.